Crafting the perfect costume

Kaden Cortello shows off the Captain America costume students at the Okaloosa Academy made for him. About 60 Okaloosa Academy students in Sines' art class made Halloween costumes for the wheelchairs of four young children. The costume themes also included a Star Wars TIE fighter and Cinderella's chariot.
